

Are you concerned about what services and supports are available after high school?

We can help answer some of those questions.

Informational/Orientation Meeting for Students of Newton County with IEPs and their Parents

The Bureau of Developmental Disability Services (BDDS) and Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) is offering an informational/orientation meeting to discuss possible services for students after they leave high school.

The meeting will consist of a power point presentation, video and a question and answer session.

The agencies will be able to take referral information and interested individuals may fill out the VR questionnaire at the event.
